2

Behind the scenes

What vendors do outside a single order: setup, tags, marketing, their books and quality standards.

3

Talking to vendors

The pitch in six lines, and clear answers to the questions vendors ask most.

PART 1 · THE ORDER CYCLE

One order, nine steps

1. Discover
   The customer finds a laundry; the vendor shares its link.
2. Order
   The customer books; the branch is alerted at once.
3. Pickup or drop-off
   A rider collects with a PIN, or the customer drops off.
4. Check-in
   Every item tagged, priced and photographed.
5. Processing
   Washing to packing, tracked live by both sides.
6. Payment
   In the app — online, or at the door on delivery.
7. Handover
   Delivered or collected, confirmed with a PIN.
8. Review & aftercare
   Ratings, claims and referral rewards.
9. Getting paid
   An automatic payout to the vendor’s bank.

STEP 3 OF 9 · PICKUP OR DROP-OFF

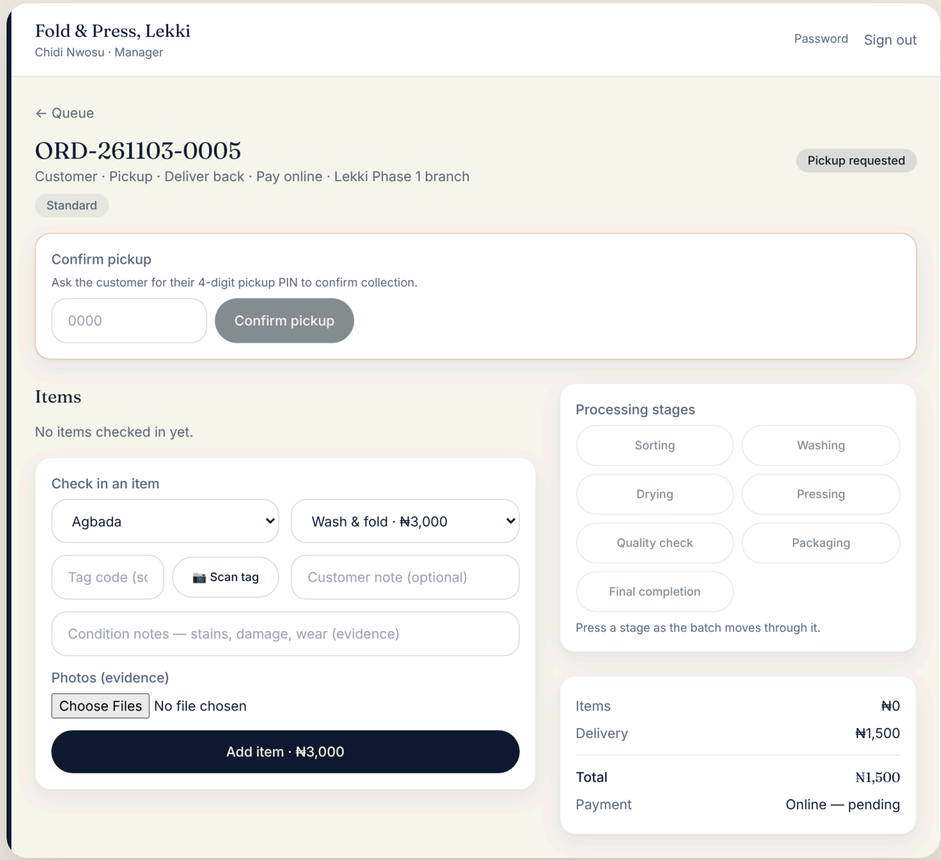

Getting it to the shop

CUSTOMER

- Drops off at the branch, or books a pickup
- Shows the rider a 4-digit pickup PIN

VENDOR

- Sends its own rider or a dispatch partner
- Enters the PIN to confirm collection
- Riders don’t need an account

VALUE FOR CUSTOMERS

Their clothes leave only with the right rider.

VALUE FOR VENDORS

STEP 4 OF 9 · CHECK-IN

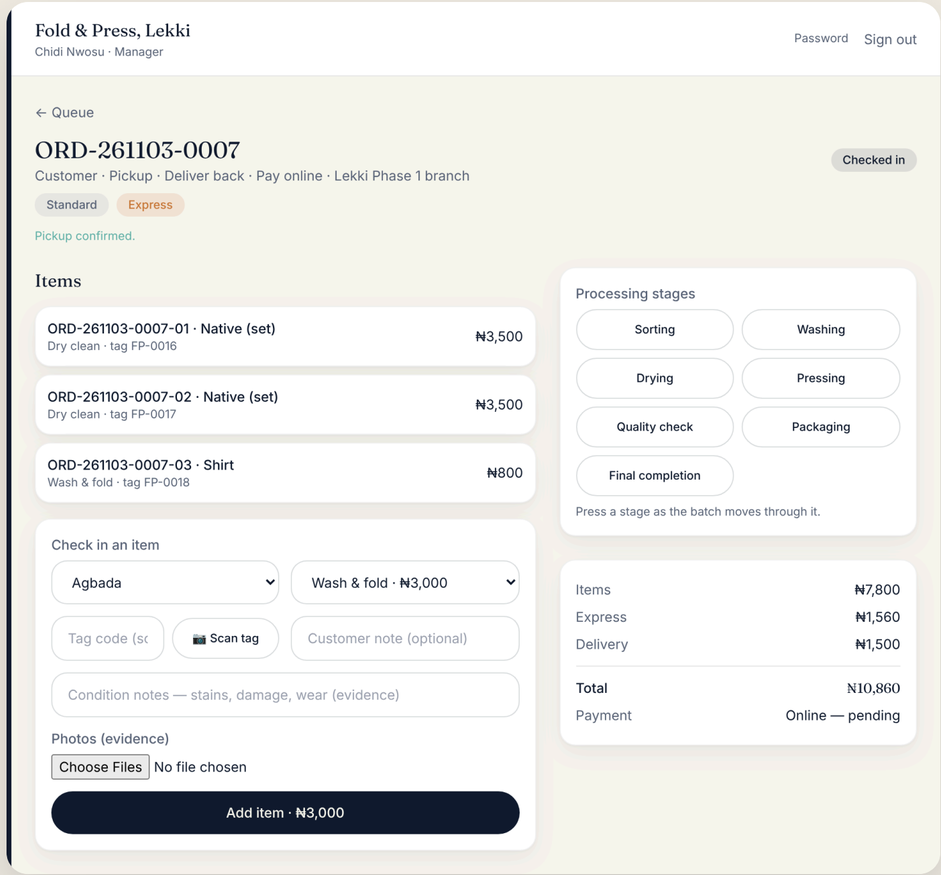

Tagged and priced

CUSTOMER

- Sees each item, its tag and its price
- Gets the full total before paying

VENDOR

- Scans the garment tag’s QR, or types it
- Prices come from its own price list
- Adds photos and condition notes

VALUE FOR CUSTOMERS

An itemised bill, with every piece accounted for.

VALUE FOR VENDORS

No lost items, steady prices, and evidence against unfair claims.

STEP 5 OF 9 · PROCESSING

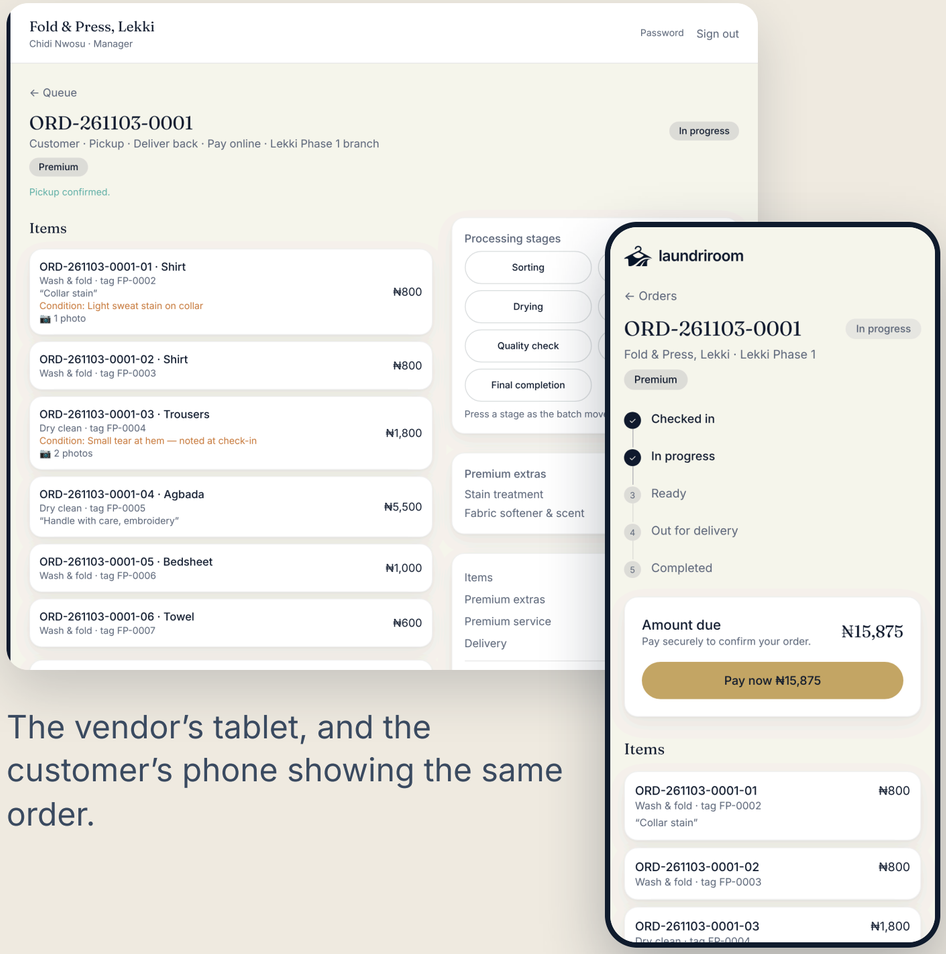

Every stage, live

CUSTOMER

- Follows each stage live in the app
- No need to call: “Is it ready yet?”

VENDOR

- Taps each stage: sort, wash, dry, press
- Then quality check, packing, completion
- Skipping a stage needs a manager

The vendor’s tablet, and the customer’s phone showing the same order.

VALUE FOR CUSTOMERS

Peace of mind: they always know where their laundry is.

VALUE FOR VENDORS

Fewer calls, a built-in quality check, one team routine.

STEP 6 OF 9 · PAYMENT

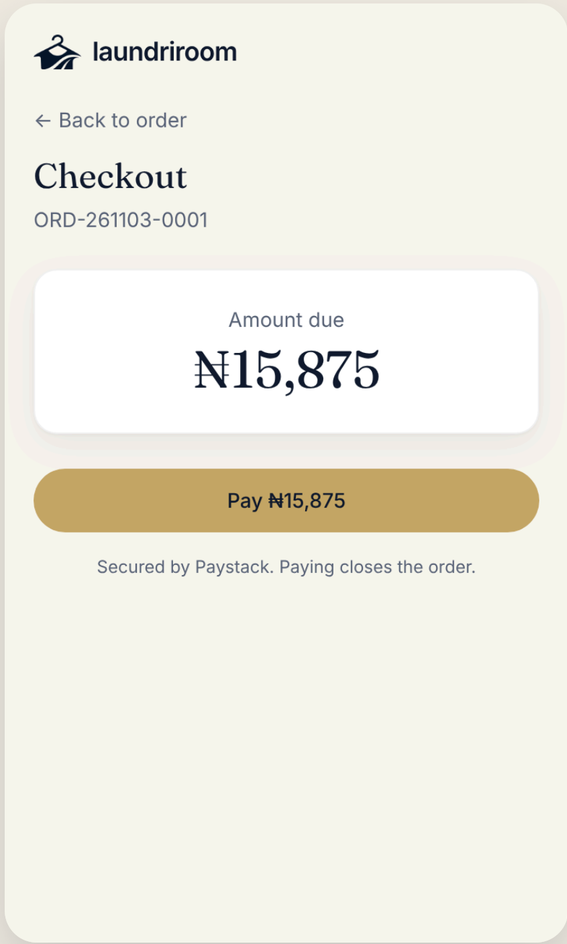

Paying, without cash

CUSTOMER

- Pays securely in the app once items are priced
- Or chooses pay on delivery and pays at the door
- Promo codes and bulk discounts come off the bill

VENDOR

- Or pays in the app at the door, on delivery

VENDOR

- Sends it out with a named rider
- Confirms the PIN to close the order
- Can reschedule a missed delivery

Rider details on the tablet; the handover PIN on the phone.

VALUE FOR CUSTOMERS

Their clothes are handed only to them.

VALUE FOR VENDORS

Proof of delivery closes every order cleanly.

STEP 8 OF 9 · REVIEW AND AFTERCARE

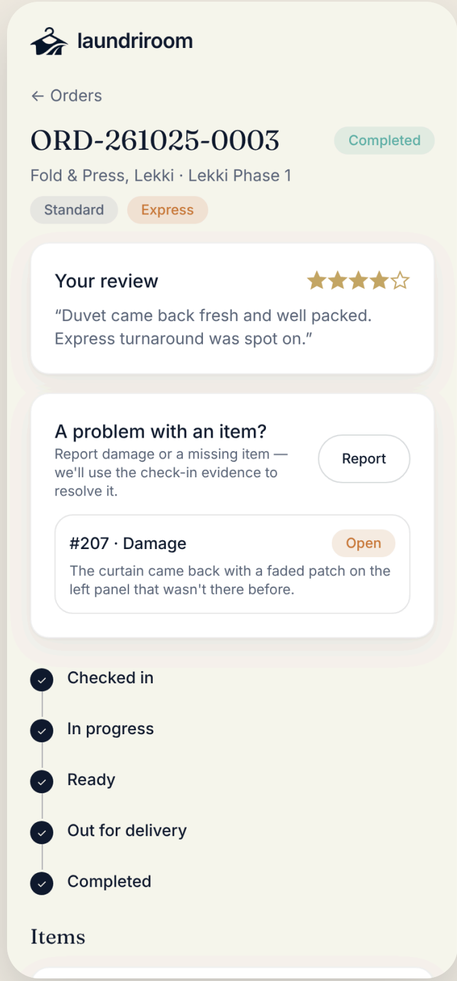

After the handover

CUSTOMER

- Rates the order 1–5 stars, with a comment
- Reports damage or a missing item in the app
- Earns rewards by referring friends

VENDOR

- Good reviews build its page and app listing
- A 1–2★ rating alerts it at once to follow up
- Claims are settled with its check-in evidence

VALUE FOR CUSTOMERS

A voice that’s heard, and protection if something goes wrong.

VALUE FOR VENDORS

A growing reputation, and an early warning to fix problems fast.

STEP 9 OF 9 · GETTING PAID

The vendor gets paid

1 Order completed and paid
The handover PIN, or payment at the door, closes it.

2 Vendor paid in full
Their own prices and delivery — nothing deducted.

3 Payout sent automatically
Straight to the vendor's bank account, logged in the Ledger.

VALUE FOR VENDORS

Paid per order, automatically — no invoices, no month-end wait.

HOW THE MONEY WORKS

Where the money goes

THE CUSTOMER PAYS

- Items: the vendor’s price + commission
- Premium extras
- The delivery fee
- Any express or premium charge
- Less any discount

THE VENDOR RECEIVES

- Their own item prices, in full
- Premium extras and delivery
- Less their share of a promo they fund

LAUNDRIROOM KEEPS

- The commission on top, [__%] — or express instead
- The express and premium charges
- It pays for its own promos and bulk discounts

Added on top. ₦200 shirt at 30% → customer pays ₦260, vendor gets ₦200.
